Historic Letter - Letter was received well by historic property owners

Eashoo will e mail letter to BSI to commissioner Heddy who will distribute to all Commissioners for review.

Heddy to get a commissioner to commit to attending the Flint River Watershed Coalition meetings.

5. New Business

Discussion by John Carpenter, the City of Flint Transportation Director, explaining the future neighborhood, housing, building and street plans for all areas near Hurley Medical Center. The homes that are owned by Hurley were discussed. John stated that as many as four of the houses were not structurally sound and if they were demolished it would make the rest of the Hurley houses more attractive to a potential developer.

Dale Suomela and John Carpenter will tour the Hurley homes and report their condition to the HDC at the next meeting.

1. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 6:40 p.m.
