Hello, ladies. Please see below for the most recent "Council Items" email list. These are individuals who should be receiving all council agendas and public notices ONLY.

Moving forward, I will create a separate list for Council press releases and share it with you all soon.

I may also create a separate list for Council announcements and notifications, but I'm still debating about that one.

Finally, for now, allusers@cityofflint.com is still the only address where we will automatically send any approved agenda items. Thanks - Davina
