CONSENT AGENDA

RESOLUTIONS

250285-T Request for Voluntary Suspension/Flint City Council Official Duties/1st Ward Councilman Leon El-Alamin

Resolution resolving that the Flint City Council calls upon Councilman Leon El-Alamin to voluntarily suspend his official duties, including attending Council and committee meetings in a voting capacity, introducing legislation, presiding over any committee roles, and representing the City in an official capacity, until the criminal case identified above is resolved by dismissal, plea, or final adjudication, AND, further resolving that, during this voluntary suspension, the Council requests that Councilman El-Alamin abstain from all votes and refrain from participating in Council deliberations, except to the limited extent required by law to preserve his rights, AND, further resolving that Council affirms its commitment to due process and the presumption of innocence in criminal proceedings, while also affirming the City's compelling interest in protecting survivors, deterring violence, and maintaining public confidence in municipal governance, AND, finally resolving that nothing in this Resolution shall be construed to limit any rights, remedies, or Charter processes that may arise should statutory or Charter-specified disqualifications occur, including – but not limited to – resignation or vacancy upon conviction.

(SEPARATED FROM THE MASTER RESOLUTION (CONSENT AGENDA))
