ROLL CALL

RESOLUTIONS

170607 Designation/Street Administrator

Resolution resolving that the Flint City Council designates Department of Public Works Supervisor Robert Bincsik as Street Administrator for the City of Flint.

170289.2 Amendment/Resolution No. 170289.1/Obsolete Property Rehabilitation
Amendment/Resolution No. 170289.1/Exemption/Obsolete Property Rehabilitation
Act/550 Bears LLC/550 S. Saginaw Street/Mott Culinary Institute Development
Project

Resolution resolving that the Flint City Council hereby approves and authorizes the amendment of Resolution No. 170289.1 to include the following provisions as required by the state: 1. The application was approved for less than 12 years and the following -- a letter requesting an extension and reason why -- is necessary for extending the exemption period; and 2. the City of Flint requires that rehabilitation of the facility shall be completed by December 1, 2018. In all other respects, Resolution No. 170289.1 remains unchanged and in full force and effect. [NOTE: The Obsolete Property Rehabilitation Act exemption is for 550 Bears LLC's 550 S. Saginaw Street Project (Mott Culinary Institute), located within the URC 600 South District, which consists of real property at 550 S. Saginaw Street and 600 S. Saginaw Street, with the exemption period beginning December 31, 2017, and continuing for an 8 year period.]

Hi Vicky,

In reviewing the subject resolution that you guys have in the law dept ready for review, I found a couple of mistakes that I have corrected. Please substitute the attached resolution and staff review in your office for the one attached. I plan to be out of the office in the morning but will be back in the afternoon if you have questions.

Gloria, please take the reso I've printed and left in your chair to have Vicky to substitute it for the one already in the Law Dept.

Thanks
